Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) Payments

When payment is returned to the Fruitport District Library (FDL) as non-sufficient payment the library is charged a NSF fee by their financial banking institution.

If payment is made by check, the financial banking institution will process it through twice.

If the funds are unavailable, the financial banking institution will charge a NSF fee. That fee may vary depending on that institutions rules and regulations. The library will charge a NSF fee of $25.00.

The library patron will not be able to check items out until payment, including NSF fee is paid.

Adopted by the Fruitport District Library Board on January 17, 2018.
